Dr. Aparna Bandyopadhyay, Associate Professor of Department of History, Diamond Harbour Women's University spoke on "Bengali Women & Gender Politics in the Freedom Struggle". In the Indian National Movement, participation of women was in favour of Gandhi's non violence on one hand and on the other hand they were equally involved in picketing and other violent campaigns. Women during the colonial regime attempted to diminish the lines between the interior and the exterior worlds. They also raised voice against the gender politics which they had to endure while actively participating in the national movement. The lecture was highly informative as well as much relevant which was followed by live-discussion.

Smt. Moumita Dasgupta anchored the webinar & co-ordinated the interactive session. The webinar was well attended by students, scholars & faculty members from various institutions. One hundred ninety six participants attended the webinar in both of these two online platforms (Google Meet & YouTube). At the end of the interactive session, Preeti Mitra conveyed "Vote of Thanks" to all the participants. The webinar was ended with our great "National Anthem". We have issued the necessary 'Certificate of Participation' to all the participants according to feedback submission on the webinar.

We had also organized a quiz on 15th of August, 74th Independence day Celebration. On 15th August, 1947 our country India became independent. This is a day of pride for all Indians. 'Sujalam' 'Suphalam' 'Shasya' 'Shyamalam' is our India. India is a land of diverse cultures, languages and customs. Democracy and Secularism leads India towards excellence. E-Certificate was sent to the participants who scored 50% and above. 186 number of students & research scholar had participated, 151 scored above 50 percent.
